'YAP', Interesting Organization That Wants to Help!

Recently a new Regular at the 'Pub', (Dylan) approached the WEC and wanted to discuss 'YAP'. YAP (Young Active Professionals) is a social network for young professionals in their 20's, 30's and 40's. Although we are new to learning about YAP, their website explains it all. YAP has evolved into the desire to assist local charities by giving them a portion of their proceeds from their scheduled events.

West End Charities has been selected to receive the door from the upcoming 'YAP Halloween Costume Party' on October 25th, 2008 at 'The Green Elephant' on Greenville Ave. For more information on YAP, please visit their web-site at: www.yapclub.com/dfw.

Regular - A person who frequents the 'West End Pub' and has both been cut off and made the infamous 'log'. Not as rare as you may think!

Cooking for Good...Again

The much anticipated second volume of our charities cookbook titled 'West End Charities, Still Cooking' will be ready for the holiday's. With recipes from members, regulars, and friends of; this book contains some pretty great dishes that we are all very excited about. We are expecting the cookbooks in November, and will keep you posted. Cookbooks will be $10.
